

Sessional Youth Worker Job Advert

The Wharton Trust is one of the most progressive charities in Hartlepool. Founded in 1990, the Trust has been at the forefront of delivering transformational change to communities across the area. We are a small but dedicated charity and are continually striving to do things better and differently.

If you are passionate about young people and listening to their loves, hopes and concerns; want the community to be a better place to live and are able to challenge your own and others' attitudes and assumptions, then this is the role for you. This is a funded 6 month trial in which we hope to d

7.5 hours per week £8.50/hr (subject to tax and NI) permanent. This role will require non-negotiable evening work.

The successful candidates will be dynamic, respectful and be willing to train and work differently to support positive change in individuals, communities and institutions.

Sessional Youth Worker

Recruitment Timetable Closing date: midday Friday 6 October 2017 (If you do not hear from us by 10th October please presume you have been unsuccessful on this occasion)

Interview date: Thursday 12 October 2017

For an application pack visit www.whartontrust.org.uk

The Wharton Trust is committed to equality of opportunity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. Registered charity number 1059956; Company Reg. 0329656