

Sessional Youth Worker - Job Specification

| Requirements | Essential requirements | Desirable requirements |
|--------------------------|---|--|
| Qualifications | Good standard of general education - GCSE's or equivalent | Youth work qualification or equivalent in a related field |
| Experience and Knowledge | Experience of supporting children and young people in an informal environment Have an understanding of social action | |
| Skills | Good communication skills, both written and verbal Ability to present information to a wide audience including young people, parents, colleagues, members of the public and other agencies Understand their role in positively promoting the Trust with the local community, residents and partners effectively on a day to day basis Capacity to actively involve children and young people at all levels and in line with their capacity | Ability to plan, deliver and evaluate work to a good level |
| Personal Attributes | Ability to take on responsibility Ability to think creatively Ability to work flexibly Willingness to undertake personal development training Commitment to anti-discriminatory practice | Innovative |
| Special requirements | Capacity to independent travel Compliance with the Wharton Trust's policies | |